New Pastor Called

This past Sunday, in a special church conference called for the purpose of considering the unanimous recommendation from the Pastor Search Team, Tyler Tankersley was called to serve as the next pastor of Ardmore Baptist Church. Our new pastor writes:

Jess and I want to thank you for the warmth, graciousness, and hospitality you showed to us during our Call Weekend. We are elated that God has brought us together. It is abundantly clear to us that you are a community of faith with a devotion to scripture, committed to missionally practicing your faith, and seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We are looking forward to joining you on the journey of following Christ into the future of ABC.

We are now entering the liminal stage between positions. We would covet your prayers as we continue to minister to the wonderful people of First Baptist Church of Cape Girardeau, Missouri for the next few weeks. We are looking forward to being with you in Winston-Salem on August 4. Our prayers are with the people of Ardmore Baptist Church as we prepare together for many years of fruitful ministry!

- Tyler Tankersley

Begins July 7

It's time again for our wonderful Summer Choir experience! This has become a tradition each summer at Ardmore where anyone and everyone is invited to come and sing with the choir on Sundays in July and August. If you have ever wanted to sing in the choir but couldn't attend the Wednesday night rehearsals, then Summer Choir is for you! It's easy, fun, and helps us keep the choir loft filled in the summer months. Come and join us on July 7.

- No Wednesday night rehearsals
- No robes on Sundays
- No music-reading experience needed
- Familiar, easy hymn anthems you can learn in a 15-minute rehearsal
- Come to the choir room 15 minutes before the service starts to go over the music
- A folder and music will be ready and waiting for you

By Design

Today God made it clear that he is the Creator and Grand Director and Susan and I were smack in the middle of his plan. We volunteer through the Ronald McDonald House to visit families whose children are in the hospital. We usually bring a bag of chocolates and open ears to listen to these parents as they learn to deal with their child's condition. We never know what to expect when we knock on the door.

Today was different. After a routine greeting with a mother, we were passing through the waiting room on our way to the next room to visit when a couple greeted us. They were waiting for results from their 8-year-old daughter who had contracted a virus that shut down her lungs and was beginning to attack other organs. As we were talking with them, staff called them into the room because their daughter was hungry and calling for them.

We hadn't visited the nearby Family Room for a long time, so we decided to drop in to say hello. As we were introducing ourselves to the volunteer at the desk, a lady got our attention to tell us that someone at one of the tables wanted to talk with us. We approached her and she asked, "Will you pray with me?" As it turns out she is the grandmother of a child who had been severely burned two or three years earlier and was going through more surgeries. She remembered us from before and she needed a friend.

I want to say that today was very different from most days, but I'm not so sure. We certainly happened to be in the right place at the right time, not by accident but by design.

- Chester David
